Welcome to Batuu, a remote planet that’s home to the mysterious Black Spire Outpost. Throughout its markets, around corners and through back alleys, you can encounter strange creatures and alien languages. Drop by the cantina to sample local beverages and curious concoctions. Build your own droid and even construct a custom lightsaber. Answer the call to be part of a covert mission where you can take control of the Millennium Falcon, the fastest hunk of junk in the galaxy. Here, you’ll find yourself immersed in the struggle between the First Order and the Resistance. Choose wisely. And get ready to live your adventure at Star Wars: Galaxy’s Edge (opening August 29, 2019).

Epic adventures await at Star Wars: Galaxy’s Edge

When in Batuu, speak as Batuuans do

Black Spire Outpost residents have developed their own dialect, passed down through generations. During your visit, you’ll likely hear some common phrases and greetings. And while residents are quick to help you understand the language, here’s a little cheat sheet:

“Bright suns”
– Good morning...hello

“Rising moons”
– Good evening

“Til the spire”
– Goodbye...safe returns

“Well bartered”
– Thank you

“Under the shadow of the spire!”
– Cheers!

“Good run”
– Good luck
AUREBESH: THE WRITTEN LANGUAGE OF BATUU

The most common form of written language on Batuu is Aurebesh. You’ll see it carved into stone, posted on walls and written on signs. In fact, Aurebesh is on the cover of this month’s Mickey Monitor – see if you can decode it! 🎨

After 20 years of igniting imaginations, IllumiNations: Reflections of Earth at Epcot® will take its final bow on September 30, 2019. But not to worry. An all-new, limited-time spectacular launches on October 1, 2019—Epcot® Forever! Some of the greatest aspects of the Park’s past, present and future will come to life during the show—including the music.

“I think the music is the heart of the show,” says noted conductor and composer Don Harper. And while you’ll recognize classic Epcot® tunes such as “Tomorrow’s Child” and “One Little Spark,” Harper has reframed them with new arrangements, which were fully orchestrated and recorded at London’s famous Abbey Road Studios. “I think everybody’s in for a treat.”

Fireworks and lasers have been part of the Epcot® spectacles since the beginning of the Park in 1988. And according to Show Director Alan Bruun, Epcot® Forever will use those elements—and add a couple that have never been seen before.

“We might have a couple of kites. And we might light ‘em up,” says Bruun playfully.

“Think of a fusion meal, bringing in flavors from different cuisines. We’re going to do the same thing in the sky, right around the lagoon.”

Epcot® Forever captures the spirit of the Park in five amazing acts: inspiration, innovation, exploration, imagination and celebration.

“Hopefully, our Guests are going to be reminded of just how much they love this Park and be able to carry that love away with them when they leave,” says Bruun. 🎆

Epcot® International Food & Wine Festival — Flavors from Fire Marketplace

BEEF AND MUSHROOM BURGER
- 2 teaspoons canola oil
- 12 ounces button mushrooms, cleaned and sliced 1/4-inch thick
- 1 teaspoon finely minced garlic
- 1/4 teaspoon coarse salt
- 1 pinch freshly ground black pepper
- 2 1/4 pounds ground beef, 80/20 blend

BRIE FONDUE
- 4 ounces Brie
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 tablespoon all-purpose flour
- 1 cup whole milk
- Pinch coarse salt, freshly ground black pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon truffle oil

TRUFFLE AND BLUE CHEESE POTATO CHIPS
- 2 russet potatoes, peeled and sliced very thin with mandoline
- 4 cups vegetable oil, for frying
- 2 teaspoons truffle oil
- 1 teaspoon blue cheese powder or blue cheese crumbles
- 1/8 teaspoon popcorn salt

FOR SERVING:
- 6 brioche buns
- 2 cups arugula
FOR BEEF AND MUSHROOM BURGER:
1. Heat canola oil in sauté pan over medium heat until oil starts to shimmer. Add mushrooms, garlic, salt and pepper.
2. Cook mushrooms down until tender and liquid has evaporated, about 8 to 10 minutes. Remove from heat and cool.
3. Finely chop cooled mushrooms. Transfer to large bowl and add ground beef, mixing well. Form 6 patties and refrigerate until ready to cook.

FOR BRIE FONDUE:
1. Place Brie in freezer for about 20 minutes.
2. Melt butter in medium-size sauté pan over medium heat. Add flour and whisk constantly until mixture is caramel colored.
3. Slowly add milk, whisking constantly to avoid clumps.
4. Bring to boil, reduce heat and cook until mixture starts to thicken.
5. Remove Brie from freezer. With sharp knife, remove rind from cheese and cut into small chunks.
6. Add cheese to milk mixture in batches, constantly whisking until all ingredients are melted and mixture thickens.
7. Season with salt and pepper. Remove from heat and allow to cool slightly.
8. Finish with truffle oil just before serving. Add more truffle oil to taste.

FOR TRUFFLE POTATO CHIPS:
1. Blanch potato slices in boiling water for about 2 minutes. Remove from water and dry on baking tray.
2. Add vegetable oil to deep stock pot and heat to 350°F.
3. Once oil is hot, add potatoes and fry chips until golden brown and crispy, frying in batches if necessary.
4. Remove chips from oil, drain on paper towels and place in mixing bowl.
5. Drizzle with truffle oil and gently toss; sprinkle with blue cheese powder or crumbles and salt.

TO SERVE:
1. Remove burgers from refrigerator and season with salt and pepper.
2. Grill to desired doneness.
3. Lightly grill buns on cut side.
4. Place handful of arugula on bottom of each bun, then top with burger. Ladle about 2 tablespoons of cheese fondue on top.
5. Add handful of truffle chips, then top with bun.

WHAT TO DRINK:
Go red or white – a fruity red Chilean or New Zealand Pinot Noir, or a creamy, subtly oaked Chardonnay.

HOME HACK:
You can always use blue cheese crumbles in this recipe, or find blue cheese powder at online gourmet specialty shops. It’s made by dehydrating blue cheese and it adds a rich, velvety texture and sharp, earthy flavor – try it on popcorn or add to salad dressings and dips.
Charred Skirt Steak, Corn Pancakes, Jicama Slaw

— Serves 6 —

Epcot® International Food & Wine Festival — Flavors From Fire Marketplace

MARINATED SKIRT STEAK

3 tablespoons chopped flat-leaf parsley
3 tablespoons chopped cilantro
1/4 teaspoon dried oregano
1 teaspoon minced garlic
1/2 teaspoon chopped Fresno or jalapeño pepper
1/4 teaspoon chopped serrano pepper
2 tablespoons diced red onion
1 pinch coarse salt
1 pinch freshly ground black pepper
1 pinch smoked Spanish paprika
1 pinch chili flakes
2 tablespoons red wine vinegar
1/4 cup canola oil
1 pound skirt steak

JICAMA SLAW

1 cup peeled jicama, julienned with mandoline
1/2 cup peeled carrots, julienned with mandoline
1/4 cup red onion, thinly sliced, about 2-inch-long pieces
1 teaspoon finely diced Fresno or jalapeño pepper
1 cup white vinegar
1 teaspoon coarse salt
Pinch freshly ground black pepper
3 tablespoons sugar
2 teaspoons canola oil
1/4 teaspoon chopped flat leaf parsley

CILANTRO CREAM

1/4 cup sour cream
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1 to 2 tablespoons chopped cilantro
2 tablespoons lime juice
1 teaspoon minced garlic
Pinch coarse salt

CORN PANCAKES

2 large ears yellow corn, shucked
1 large egg
3 tablespoons water
3 tablespoons whole milk
Pinch coarse salt, freshly ground black pepper
1/2 cup masa harina
1 teaspoon canola oil, more as needed
FOR MARINATED SKIRT STEAK:
1. Place all ingredients except steak in blender and puree until smooth.
2. Taste and adjust seasonings.
3. Put steak in large zip-top bag and add marinade. Refrigerate several hours or overnight.

FOR JICAMA SLAW:
1. Julienne jicama and carrots with mandoline and place in glass bowl. Add onion and diced pepper.
2. Blend vinegar, salt, pepper and sugar at medium speed in blender.
3. With blender running, slowly add oil.
4. Stir in parsley and adjust seasonings. Pour dressing over slaw.
5. Transfer to glass bowl or zip-top bag and marinate in refrigerator at least four hours.

FOR CILANTRO CREAM:
1. Combine all ingredients in blender and puree until smooth. Adjust seasoning if necessary.
2. Transfer to bowl, cover and refrigerate for at least 1 hour.

FOR CORN PANCAKES:
1. Smoke corn over hickory wood chips at 220°F degrees for 20 minutes. Remove from heat, cool and cut kernels from cob. Divide into 2 equal portions.
2. Puree egg, water, milk, salt, pepper, and half of corn in food processor until smooth.
3. Transfer to medium-size bowl and fold in masa harina and remaining corn.
4. Heat canola oil in a medium-size skillet over medium-high heat. Pour a heaping tablespoon of batter into skillet and spread to about 1/4-inch thickness. Cook for about 4 minutes or until golden brown, flipping halfway through. Cook in batches and keep warm until ready to serve. (This step can be done while steak is resting.)

TO SERVE:
1. Remove steak from marinade and grill over charcoal to medium rare. Remove from heat and rest 10 minutes. Slice thinly against grain.
2. Place pancake on serving plate, top with steak, slaw and cilantro cream.

WHAT TO DRINK:
Pair with a cool margarita served over ice in a salt-rimmed glass, or agua fresca made with fresh melon, lime, sugar and mint.

HOME HACK:
If you don’t have time to make the corn pancakes, you can serve with store-bought corn tortillas – fry them in a heavy skillet over medium-high heat with 2 tablespoons hot oil for about 10 to 30 seconds on each side until browned and cooked (they will still be pliable). Drain on paper towels and keep warm until ready to serve.
New Brunswick Slider

— Serves 6 to 8 —

Epcot® International Food & Wine Festival — Hops & Barley Marketplace

POT ROAST
4 tablespoons canola oil, divided
1 small onion, thinly sliced
2 cups red wine
2 garlic cloves, sliced
2 sprigs fresh rosemary
2 sprigs fresh thyme
4 cups beef stock
Coarse salt, freshly ground black pepper
Bottom round beef roast, about 3 pounds

HORSERADISH MAYONNAISE
2 tablespoons prepared horseradish, more to taste
3/4 cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon mustard powder
1 teaspoon garlic powder

FOR SERVING:
Potato rolls
Giardiniera
Crispy fried onions
FOR POT ROAST:

1. Heat 2 tablespoons of oil over medium heat in large skillet. Add onions and cook until translucent, 5 to 7 minutes, stirring often.

2. Add garlic, rosemary and thyme and stir 30 seconds. Stir in red wine, bring to a boil, reduce heat to medium-low and cook until reduced by half, about 10 minutes.

3. Add beef stock, bring back to a boil, reduce heat to a low boil and cook until reduced by half, about 20 to 25 minutes. Season with salt and pepper.

4. Preheat oven to 350°F.

5. Season roast with salt and pepper. Heat remaining 2 tablespoons oil in large Dutch oven (or any covered pot that can transfer to oven). Add roast and sear on all sides.

6. Remove from heat and pour sauce over roast. Cover and bake 3 1/2 to 4 hours, or until meat shreds easily with a fork.

7. Remove from oven, cool slightly and shred for serving.

FOR HORSERADISH MAYONNAISE:
Stir together ingredients and refrigerate until ready to serve.

TO SERVE:

1. Slice potato rolls and fill with shredded pot roast.

2. Spoon horseradish mayonnaise on top of pot roast.

3. Garnish with giardiniera and crispy fried onions.

WHAT TO DRINK:
Pour a rich, robust coffee porter.

TESTER HACK:
We think the crispy giardiniera – pickled Italian vegetables – makes this sandwich. You can find giardiniera in the pickle section of the grocery store; look for Chicago-style packed in oil and vinegar for the most flavor. We used store-bought crispy fried onions (the old-fashioned kind) but you could make them from scratch – just thinly slice onions and fry in hot oil until golden and crisp, 2 to 3 minutes. Drain on paper towels and season with salt and pepper.
