

Year of the Dog Celebration

Hong Kong Disneyland Resort Chinese New Year Celebration Factsheet

Hong Kong Disneyland Resort (HKDL) is ringing in 2018 with new excitement from day to night in every season this year, starting with a festive celebration for Chinese New Year. HKDL will welcome the Year of the Dog with Chinese New Year celebrations from January 18 to March 4, 2018, filling the park with good fortune and excitement. God of Fortune Goofy and playful Pluto will take center stage, showering blessings on guests. For the first time ever, Main Street, U.S.A. and the Plaza will become an authentic Hong Kong-style Chinese New Year Night Market every evening, with mobile stalls offering an abundance of festive delicacies and specialties. There will even be atmosphere entertainment to drum up the festive spirit for families as they enjoy the market together. Mickey and friends will also appear in different outfits to offer their best wishes.

“Chinese New Year Celebration” Festive Experiences

[NEW] Chinese New Year Night Market

Discover magical fortune by taking an evening walk to the Chinese New Year Night Market! As night falls, Main Street, U.S.A. and the Plaza will be transformed into a special Night Market for Chinese New Year. Like Hong Kong’s unique Lunar New Year fairs, this is a special market filled with mobile stalls that offer tasty delicacies and special items. Indulge in local Hong Kong snacks with a Disney theme like Mickey-shaped Maltose Toast, Mickey-shaped Red Bean Pudding and Egg Puffs.

Take home some New Year’s luck and joy by purchasing exclusive merchandise items such as a Disney Greeting Windmill and Disney Blessing Ornaments. Bring home good fortunes in the CNY goodies bag (worth HK$400), made available for just HK$100 in limited quantity daily.

Mickey and friends will also appear at the Night Market to wish everyone Kung Hey Fat Choi, and there will even be atmosphere entertainment to drum up the festive spirit for families enjoying the market together.

Disney Friends’ Chinese New Year Greetings

Disney friends will appear in different festive outfits day and night to offer their best wishes, including StellaLou, who will be celebrating her first Chinese New Year at the Hong Kong Disneyland Resort. Be sure to take photos with all the Disney pals for the family photo album!

Get Blessed by Greeting God of Fortune Goofy

The 2018 CNY icon for good fortune, God of Fortune Goofy will greet guests at The Annex on Main Street, U.S.A. to share blessings.

Festive Decorations

During the festive celebration, HKDL will be resplendent with Lunar New Year decorations, from “Fai Chuns” to Chinese New Year flowers, which will immerse guests in a traditional and festive ambiance. Main Street, U.S.A. welcomes guests with Pluto-themed decorations to wish everyone prosperity in the new year!

New Design for Year of the Dog Red Packets

From the first to the fifth day of the Lunar New Year (February 16-20), the park will be presenting guests with a newly designed Year of the Dog-themed lai see packet! It contains a chocolate gold coin and a merchandise coupon (while supplies last), giving guests more reasons to shop for the new year and share good fortune.

Animation Academy

During the Chinese New Year celebration, Disney animators will show guests how to draw Mickey and Donald in festive outfits for a creative start of the year at Animation Academy on Main Street, U.S.A.

New Year Theme Stickers

From January 18, the park will distribute Chinese New Year-themed stickers to guests (while supplies last).

Year of the Dog Merchandise

More than 40 Chinese New Year-themed goodies will be presented at HKDL in three assortments: Mickey and friends, Duffy and friends and Tsum Tsum. There will be gift boxes, apparel, festive candies and biscuits, lai see packets, “fai chuns” and more. All-new “101 Dalmatians” plush toys and Pluto plush toys in CNY outfits are the perfect keepsakes for the Year of the Dog. StellaLou plush toys will be dressed in traditional Chinese outfits for the first time! In addition, Disney friends Tsum Tsum will be featured in their all-new adorable Year of the Dog look.

Festive Stay

The resort’s three hotels will be lavishly decorated with Disney festive ornaments. Stays at resort hotels during the Chinese New Year celebration come with a set of complimentary collectibles, including Chinese New Year-inspired amenities, slippers and door decorations. From the first to the seventh day of the Chinese New Year period (February 16 – 22, 2018), guests in each room will be presented with Year of the Dog-themed lai see packets containing a chocolate gold coin and a merchandise coupon to share the festive spirit.

Chinese New Year Hotel Recreation Activities

The three resort hotels will present a range of complimentary activities for guests to get into the traditional spirit. There will be arts and crafts workshops at different times to give young guests a hands-on experience in making their own Disney “fai chuns,” greeting windmills, New Year cards and ornaments. Families can have a walk in the Disney New Year Market at Hong Kong Disneyland Hotel’s Storybook Playroom, joining different mini games, where young guests can get different Chinese New Year flowers to decorate their own flower pots. Guests staying at Kingdom Club can even create an exclusive Mickey & Minnie Blessing Ornament and Disney Wish Board, adding an extra level of enjoyment to their stay. And be sure to join the New Year with a Disney Lion Dance at Disney’s Hollywood Hotel. Young guests and their families are invited to step to the beat and learn a few drum moves to add to the fun of an exciting Chinese New Year celebration!

New Disney-themed Elements Throughout 2018

Throughout 2018, HKDL will introduce all kinds of themed experiences for guests to enjoy! Starting from Chinese New Year, there are even more chances to connect with beloved Disney stories and characters thanks to first-of-its-kind entertainment and colorful seasonal events all year long.

Date	Activities
From February, 2018	In 2018, more Marvel Super Heroes will make their dramatic arrivals at HKDL, providing perfect photo opportunities. Guests should get ready to meet Marvel's newest hero, Black Panther , when he appears for the first time in Adventureland this February! This will coincide with the release of the eagerly expected live-action "Black Panther" film debuting in February in Hong Kong cinemas.
From mid-March, 2018	In mid-March, Minnie and her pals will gather everyone to join a surprise party for Mickey! Every evening, guests will be dazzled by the brand new colorful "We Love Mickey!" Main Street Projection Show , which features cutting-edge visual effects and lighting at Hong Kong Disneyland. This surprise celebration will transform the buildings into a canvas of vibrant, colorful visuals that pay tribute to Mickey's major life milestones.
May, 2018	The month of March will also see more than 100 Disney friends appear in different ways at "Disney Friends Springtime Carnival." Guests can enjoy whimsical character encounters and reconnect with new and longtime Disney friends for a vibrant springtime celebration. Moana will make her debut in Adventureland to greet guests for photo opportunities and inspire them with her adventures. "Moana: A Homecoming Celebration," an all-new atmosphere stage show to debut in Adventureland in May, will be the first attraction of the ongoing multi-year expansion plan.
June to August, 2018	In the summer, guests can have fun with The Incredibles in Tomorrowland.
September to October, 2018	Guests can enjoy spooky fun at "Disney Halloween Time" as Jack Skellington of "The Nightmare Before Christmas" and other Disney Villains takes over the park.
November, 2018 to Jan, 2019	At the end of 2018, guests will be immersed in Hong Kong's most authentic Christmas experience with "A Disney Christmas."
